

Christian Social Qualities

Respects Self and Others

Respects Authority

Respects Property

Demonstrates Responsible Behavior

3 Exceeds Grade Level Expectations

Reaches out to offer help to others independently

Offers compliments and encouragement to peers

Seeks and offers forgiveness to reconcile relationships

Politely waits until peers and adults are finished talking before engaging them in conversation

Acknowledges adults' leadership role by speaking to them with an appropriate register; not as pals or equals

Takes care of school equipment even when it's not their assigned duty

Treats others' property with care

Willingly cleans up lunch room area of all messes despite who made the mess in the first place

Attends class on time; has 2 or fewer tardy marks per term

Notifies when things need to be done and does so on own

Chooses to conduct one's self honestly in all situations, whether supervised or not

Willingly accepts responsibility for own choices and strives to improve own actions

2 Meets Grade Level Expectations

Behaves kindly to others, works cooperatively

Apologizes when prompted

Uses good manners when speaking to adults

Responds appropriately to adults' requests

Takes care of school equipment as asked to do

Leaves other's property alone

Takes care of own trash or spills at lunch table

Usually arrives on time; has 3-5 tardies in a trimester

Completes tasks as directed

Responds honestly when questioned

Accepts consequences for own actions when confronted by authority

1 Needs Improvement

Puts own concerns before those of others

Disregards or indifferent to others' needs

Says, "I'm sorry," without intention, because told to

Interrupts adults

Interacts with adults as if equals, doesn't respond to authority in appropriate register

Does not take care of school equipment

Interferes with other students' belongings, takes others' items without permission, mistreats things

Leaves lunch room messy

Has arrived tardy to school 6 or more times a term

Must be reminded or redirected to follow instructions

Conceals truth to avoid consequences

Looks to defer blame onto others for own misdeeds